Literature and psychology have close relationship either indirectly Universitas Brawijaya Universitas Brawijaya University and functionally. The different thing is while psychology is real sitas Brawijaya Universitas Brawijaya Universitas Brawijaya Universitas Brawijaya Universitas Brawijaya condition and literature is imaginative (Jatman, 2003:97). Universitas Br Psychoanalysis is a literary approach that analyses language and Universi symbolism of the text. Psychoanalysis approach makes the readers to analyze and understand why and how a text has been written like that. Psychoanalysis approach also makes the readers curious to find the types of cultural, social, and Universi personal opinions or arguments that built the text. Usually, a literary works is a manifestation from the author's desires; dreams or even his/her own life. Pamela Universit Thurschwell in Sigmund Freud (2000, p.3) stated: Psychoanalytic is like primers on how to interpret the deeper meanings of various communications and miscommunications that pass through the individual's mind and between people: random thoughts, dreams, jokes, slip of the tongue, moments of forgetting. Literary works also combines the story of the author and also his/her University emotional lives. Thomas Ventura (2002, para 2) stated that literature, however is stated by often a medium for describing or symbolizing human interactions, psychoanalysis tries to understand it. It means that literary works is full of Universi imagination of the authors and to imitates his/her story to the art of writing. "Literature is stereotypically seen as the opposite of as Brawijaya rawijaya Universi science - more interested in fantasy than truth, and untrammeled by a need forsitas Brawijaya ersitas Brawijaya Universitas Brawijaya Universi accuracy. (2000, p 80) Universit 2.2 Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs Hierarchic theory of needs which presented by Maslow is one of Universit Psychological approach uses to interpret literary work. Psychological approach assitas Brawijaya a type of study which is applied to literary work, implied that psychology could be used to interpret or evaluate literary work. With this point Wellek and Warren Universit give an example how character in the literary work (novel, sort story, and drama) is evaluated or interpret whether true or not by psychology. Universitas Maslow (1970) describes human being as a creature which is neversitas Brawijaya Universitas Brawiiava satisfied. For human, satisfaction is temporariness. If one need is satisfied, there Universitiate other needs will appear to be satisfied, and so on. Maslow concepts that needs Universit for human being is subordinate from child and composed with many consecutive sitas Brawijaya levels. Maslow's hierarchy of need theory composed as five levels. Universitas Brased on Maslow (1943), needs of people are divided into five hierarchies Brawijaya Universitas Brawijaya Universitas Brawijaya Universitas Brawijaya Universitas Brawijaya University starting from the basic or the main needs in human life until the highest level of Sitas Brawijava the human need. Those needs on the rawijaya rawijaya rawijaya University bottom level must be gratified before the next assumes prominence. When the sitas Brawijaya University second-level need is gratified, then the third-level need takes precedence, and so rawijaya Universition. At the bottom level, the physiological needs are prominent. When they are sitas Brawijaya Universi gratified, safety needs become paramount, then the needs for belongingness and sitas Brawijaya love, followed by the need for esteem, and finally the need for self-actualization Universi (Schultz, 1981:241). Universitas Brahe Maslow diagram is associated with the hierarchy of need theory that Brawijaya Maslow originated circle 1943. According to this theory the most basic need is Universitias Brawijaya Universitias Brawijaya Universi related to physiological survival – like air to breathe, water to drink, food to eats as Brawijaya Universitas Brawijava Universitas Brawijava Universitas Brawijava Universitas Brawijava and sex to procreate. Once an individual has taken care of his or her basic rawijaya rawijaya physiological needs and feels safe and secure some degree of need for love and Brawijaya Universitas Brawijaya Universitas Brawijaya Universitas Brawijaya Universitas Brawijaya Universi belonging may well rise to the forefront of their concerns. rawijaya Universitas Brawijaya rawijaya Universitas Brawijaya Universitas Brawijaya

For example, sitas Brawijava physicological needs asked to be satisfied then safety need, and safety need will Universitask to be satisfied then love and belonging need, love and belonging need will asksitas Brawijaya Universitas Brawijaya Universitas Brawijaya Universitas Brawijaya Universitas Brawijaya to be satisfied then the high need and so on. Universitas Brawijaya Universitas Brawijaya Universitas Bramilaya that stand at the bottom ring must be satisfied before those states Brawijaya Universitneeds at the top are satisfied; indeed, the needs at the top will not even appears it as until the lower ones have been at least satisfied. A need does not have to be absolutely and fully satisfied before the next on in the hierarchy. Maslow Universi described that the healthy human is who can satisfied 85% of physiological needs, sitas 70% of safety needs, 50% of love and belonging needs, 40% of esteem needs, and Universit 10% of self actualization needs. 2.2.1 Needs for Esteem The fourth need is self-esteem need. According to Maslow (in Schultz, States) 1981:247-248) that there are two kinds of esteem needs: for self-esteem and for esteem granted by other people. Satisfaction of the need for self-esteem allows a University person to feel confident of his or her strength, worth, and adequacy. As a result of sitas Brawijaya such feelings, the individual may become more competent and productive in all aspects of life. When there is a lack of self-esteem, on the other hand, the person ersitas Brawijaya Universitas Brawijaya Universitas Brawijaya Universit Universifieds inferior, helpless, and discouraged and lacks sufficient confidence to copesitas with problems. Maslow also pointed out that self-esteem must be based on realistic assessment of one's own abilities and competence and on truly deserved respect from others. It is vital that the status, prestige, and good reputation a Universitas Brawijaya Universitas Brawijaya

When the first three classes of needs are satisfied, the needs for esteem can Universi become dominant. These involve needs for both self-esteem and for the esteem as it as BI Universitas Brawijaya Universit desire for a stable, usually high evaluation of themselves, for self respect, or self Universitesteem and for the esteem of others. When these needs are satisfied, the personsitas feels self-confident and valuable as a person in the world. When these needs are Universit frustrated, the person feels inferior, weak, helpless and worthless. All humans have a need to be respected, to have self-esteem, selfrespect, and to respect others. People need to engage themselves to gain University recognition and have an activity or activities that give the person a sense of sitas contribution, to feel accepted and self-valued, be it in a profession or hobby. Universit2.3 Character and Characterization Universitas | Character is a doer in the literary work (novel, sort story, novelette, and also drama). Character is one of the most important elements of literature, because it Universit represents a person in a story. According to Mudrick (cited in Rimmon and sitas Brawijaya Keenan, 1981, p.81) realistic argument sees character as imitation of people and tends to treat them. So the researcher can make a conclusion that a character in a Universitiliterary work reveals the life of human being. Character in fiction is created by the sitas Brawijaya creator, although could be described as human being in the real world. In the Si literary work, should be lifelikeness (Sayuti, 2000:68). There are some sitas ersitas Brawijaya Universitas Brawijaya Univ Universithe character is always involved in theme. Character is also meaner person. In the literary work there Universitis character that never develops until end. It is called flat character. There is also it as character that develops or changes. It is called round character. As we see the rule of the character in developing plot. Kenney (1966: 20) continues saying about characters that she issites Brawijaya adopted by E.M Foster that characters in fiction are devided in to two: "flat" and Universit "round" characters. The complex or round character is higher binds it as Brawijaya Universitas Brawijaya Universities in the world of fiction. The complex character is in many ways difficult s Brawijaya Universit Universi than the simple. The simple character need only repeat his basic formula each sites business. The fictional character, however complex is not human being. He is himself an artistic creation. Most simply a character is one of the persons who Universi appear in the play, one of the dramatis personal (literally, the person of the play). In other sense of term, the treatment of character is a basic part of the play wrights' work. Conventions of the period and the author's personal vision will University affect the treatment of character. Most plays contain main character and minors it as character essential to the play. Furthermore, Dickinson (1968: 17) states that: "Character is the person who can contribute to a story in several ways." Therefore, the writer can say that a character is not always someone but it Universition be a thing or authors themselves. A story can be told interesting when it stars Brawijaya Universit depends on the play of the characters, vijaya Universitas Brawijaya Universitas Brawijaya Universitas Brawijaya Universitas Brawijaya Universitas B Character has important roles to build a whole scene.
