

It's half past midnight tossing and turning unable to sleep
My mind is far away in search of something that I once had and somehow slipped out my hand
I don't know what to do

Struggling to understand this tug of war between the mind and heart
I try to search for a solution so as to agree on a compromise
Trying to pay attention to what's happening around me
I try to decipher the clues and hints that I believe are there for my picking

So, what happened?
Where did I all go wrong?
What am I supposed to do?
What is it that I have to do?

Plenty of questions and answers all out there, is what I am told, yet I am totally lost
Making me restless and confused drowning in the wishes of a long lost past
I let myself down

Sometimes beginnings aren't so simple
Sometimes give up is the only way
So with a smile on my lips and a wish on my heart,
I give faith one more reason
I give life another chance to make my wish come true

To accomplish great things, we must not only act, but also dream; not only plan, but also believe. The first step towards getting somewhere is to decide that you are not going to stay where you are. So many fail because they don't get started - they don't go; they don't overcome inertia - they don't begin. What we call the beginning is often the end, and to make an end is to make a beginning. The end is where we start from.

We are told never to cross a bridge until we come to it, but this world is owned by men who have 'crossed bridges' in their imagination far ahead of the crowd. Sometimes you just got to give yourself what you wish someone else would give you. Anyone can give up, it's the easiest thing in the world to do. But to hold it together when everyone else would understand if you fell apart, that's true strength.

We have within us the strength, the patience, and the passion to reach for the stars to change the world. Life can be found only in the present moment. The past is over and gone, the future is not yet here, and if we do not go back to ourselves in the present moment, we cannot be in touch with life. When we are motivated by goals that have deep meaning, by dreams that need completion, by pure love that needs expressing - then we truly live life.

EVERY GREAT DREAM BEGINS WITH A DREAMER
